

A planting in Hackney planted in February 2004 (see page 3) and photographed again in August 2006 after 100% establishment and no loss due to drought or vandalism. The watering regime during drought periods being one application of 30 litres every 2 weeks, plus a little help from the neighbours.

Hackney 6 years on